Some- times I get lost in all the things I should be Some- times my shame's too great Trying to live with my think - ing a - bout Some - times I'm stuck in a place Where dark sin I just can't seem to find For - give

- - ness fills the space and I can't breathe
- ness in side of me and the guilt takes me away

And out of the dark You res- cue me Your Guid- ing Hand it sets me free

Back on the path where I'm sup- posed to be with just one touch one touch of Your Love Just one touch it's all it takes Just one touch and I am free
